engaged in permanent or perennial nature of jobs in airports;

(b) if so, whether the Airport Authority has implemented the order of the apex court; and

(c) whether it is a fact that despite the court direction workers working as loaders at Indira Gandhi International Airport for more than 10 years under contractors are to be regularised yet and contract system is still allowed to be perpetuated?

THE MINISTER OF CIVIL AVIATION (SHRI CM. IBRAHIM): (a) and (b) The Hon'ble Supreme Court vide its order dated 6-12-1996 has upheld the notification of 1976 which stipulates that the work of cleaning, sweeping, dusting, watch and ward has to be done by regular employees and not by contract labour. Such workers are required to be regularised either from the date of the judgemnt of the Supreme Court or from the date of the judgement of the High Court, as the case may be. Airports Authority of India is paying the workers directly and the regularisation of the personnel is in progress.

(c) The Supreme Court order relates to the cleaning, sweeping, dusting and watch and ward workers only and the loaders are not covered by the said judgement.
